PERSONAL STATEMENT

A reliable individual and team worker looking to immerse myself in the Graphic Design field by providing companies with my skillset in Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, and InDesign while also being well-versed in Web Design and Web Development. With these skills and some client experience, I've provided companies with logos, websites, and various designs to bring their businesses to a new level. Currently, I am seeking a position in the Sports Media industry, and with my track record, I will be able to serve any company willing to give me an opportunity.
